Refined Residence with Panoramic Views Overlooking Port Hercules and the Princely Palace

Nestled within a prestigious and discreet residence on the sought-after Boulevard de Suisse, this exceptional master apartment offers a rare blend of elegance, tranquility, and breathtaking views. Benefiting from 24-hour concierge service and positioned in an elevated, serene setting, the property boasts uninterrupted panoramic views over the sparkling waters of Port Hercules and the iconic Palace — a perspective that perfectly captures the essence of refined Monaco living.

This expansive apartment is thoughtfully designed for both comfort and sophistication. The layout includes a grand double living room ideal for entertaining, two generously sized bedrooms, a stylish bathroom, and a guest toilet conveniently located within a spacious entrance hall. High-end finishes are evident throughout, from custom-fitted wardrobes to carefully selected materials that reflect timeless refinement.

A standout feature of the apartment is its large south-facing terrace, providing an abundance of natural light and a perfect setting for alfresco dining or simply enjoying the serene Mediterranean atmosphere. The residence also includes practical luxuries such as a private cellar and one secure parking space — valuable assets in the Principality.

Combining privacy, luxury, and a prime location, this apartment offers a turnkey solution for those seeking an exceptional rental property in one of Monaco's most prestigious areas.
